Health: Maintaining Positive Relationships

The students of room 8 have been learning about the skills needed to maintain positive relationships. Students created wonderful role-plays to show good and bad examples of skills such as:

- starting conversations
- listening
- telling stories in an interesting way
- cooperation
- being positive
- giving honest opinions